

From the Editorial Board

The first full issue of the quarterly Culture and Values has just been published online and includes scholarly articles, conference reports and reviews of recently published books. The texts in this issue have been prepared by authors who represent the diversity of Poland's research and teaching centres (among others, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, the University of Łódź, the University of Szczecin, the University of Wrocław, the University of Zielona Góra and the Higher School of Business and Administration in Lublin). The texts examine various questions and have been written by representatives of different disciplines: philosophy, sociology, psychology, art theory. Thus, the theoretical perspective is multifarious and multidisciplinary.

The editors of the journal Culture and Values express their gratitude to all those who have reviewed the texts published in this issue. We would like to inform you that a personal list of the reviewers will be published in the last (December) issue of the periodical; it will include all those who have reviewed texts in 2012.

The editors of Culture and Values are happy to announce that the quarterly's Advisory Board has enlarged. The Board has been joined by Professor Eugene Kelly of the New York Institute of Technology and by Professor Robert Welsh Jordan of Colorado State University (USA).

We would also like to inform you that on 17–18 May 2012 a scholarly conference will be held in Lublin, The Human Being in Culture: Historical and Contemporary Challenges, of which the quarterly Culture and Values is a co-organizer. The conference has attracted vivid interest. The list of papers to be delivered is available by selecting the tab "Conferences" on our webpage. Information about other conferences in Lublin and other academic centres can be found under this tab, too.

We would like to invite Readers to discuss the texts published in Culture and Values and to send your own proposals.

The next issue of the journal Culture and Values will appear in June 2012.
