

From the Editorial Board

The second issue of the quarterly Culture and Values has just been published online and includes scholarly articles, conference reports and reviews of recently published books. The texts in this issue have been written by authors who represent the diversity of Poland's and Ukraine's research and teaching centres: among others, John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Kiyv Slavonic University, Ukraine, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, the University of Łódź, the University of Wrocław and Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin.

The current issue of the journal includes also presentations in a philosophical debate Why Is It Not Enough to Be Only?, held on 5 June 2012 in the Department of Philosophy, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin.

The editors of the quarterly Culture and Values express their gratitude to all those who have reviewed the texts published in this issue. We would like to inform you that a personal list of the reviewers will be published in the last (December) issue of the periodical; it will include all those who have reviewed texts in 2012.

The editors of Culture and Values are happy to announce that the quarterly's Advisory Board has enlarged. The Board has been joined by Professor Edward Jeliński of Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland, and by Professor Andrzej Pawelec of Jagiellonian University in Cracow, Poland.

We would like to invite Readers to discuss the texts published in Culture and Values and to send your own proposals.

The next issue of the journal Culture and Values will appear in October 2012.
